Caltech Y

Caltech Y, x6163

The Caltech Y is a unique nonprofit organization on the Caltech campus, located at 505 S. Wilson Avenue, next to the Credit Union. The Caltech Y challenges our community to see the world with a broader perspective and a deeper understanding of social issues. Through community service projects, outdoor adventures, social activities and cultural events, the Y encourages students and staff to be active community participants. Some of the many Y sponsored activities on campus include: the Y Hike, Alternative Spring Break, Make-A-Difference Day, International Week, the Social Activism Speaker Series and the RISE tutoring program. The Y also provides services to the Caltech community such as low-cost rentals on camping equipment, discounted movie tickets, event equipment and more. For more information about the Y, call 626-395-6163 or go to www.caltechy.org.

Campus Parking

Campus Security, x4701

The Institute charges for parking between the hours of 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The monthly parking fee may be taken pre-tax through payroll deduction. All vehicles parked on the campus must be registered or display a daily permit. To register your vehicle, please fill out the Caltech Vehicle Registration form and take it to the Parking Office at 515 S. Wilson Ave. Registration forms, campus parking regulations and other information concerning campus parking is available at <http://www.parking.caltech.edu>. Municipal parking citations are issued to violators; fines are therefore paid directly to the city.

Libraries

Library help: x3404 or email library.caltech.edu

All members of the Caltech community have Caltech Library System borrowing privileges. It is necessary to register with the library before borrowing materials from it. This can be done at any library on campus; you must present your Caltech I.D. card when doing so. Members of your immediate family over the age of 14 may also register with you to use the libraries.

There are 5 libraries on campus, and they operate under one system, Caltech Library Services. Borrowed books and materials can be returned to any library on campus, regardless of the library they originated from.

To find out if the library owns or subscribes to a particular book or journal, search for it in the online catalog at <http://clas.caltech.edu/>. For additional information on library hours, locations, classes, reference help and other services, see the library webpage at <http://library.caltech.edu/>. Help is available at extension x3404 and by emailing library@caltech.edu.

While most of the collections are highly technical in nature, there are also resources of general interest. The third floor of the Sherman Fairchild Library, for instance, is home to a collection of novels, magazines, and foreign newspapers, as well as an especially comfortable reading room. Each library has its own ambiance, and we encourage you to explore them all.

Rideshare Programs

Rideshare Information, x4729

In support of the South Coast Air Quality Management District's clean-air mandates, Caltech encourages its employees to avoid driving to work alone whenever possible. To make this easier, Caltech has incentive programs for employees who carpool, vanpool, take the bus, travel by commuter train, or ride a bike to work. The Institute provides Employee Rideshare Information at:

<http://www.parking.caltech.edu/rideshare>

Public transportation schedules are available at the Parking Office, 515 S. Wilson.

As part of the Institute's ongoing effort to reduce air pollution, employees are notified to carpool or use alternative means of transportation when smog alerts are predicted.

Staff and Faculty Consultation Center (An Employee Assistance Program)

Staff and Faculty Consultation Center (EAP), x8360

The Staff and Faculty Consultation Center (SFCC) provides confidential, no-cost assessment and referral services to help resolve issues that are affecting an employee's life. Information will not be shared without written consent, except to the extent required by law. Issues may involve marriage and family relationships, substance abuse, finances, and interpersonal difficulties in the workplace. Available services include problem assessment, individual/family short-term counseling, and crisis intervention. This service is available to faculty, staff, postdocs and their partners and family members. In addition, the SFCC provides referrals to resources in the community such as childcare, legal, financial, and other social services.

Tuition Reimbursement Plan

Tuition Reimbursement, x3204

The Institute encourages employees to take job-related college credit courses by providing tuition reimbursement. To be of value to the Institute, such courses must help you obtain, maintain, or improve job related or career related capabilities.

Regular, benefit-based, full-time (40 hours per week) who have completed six or more months of service may apply for reimbursement of tuition expenses for undergraduate and graduate level courses. Regular, benefit based employees who work 20 or more hours per week may apply for reimbursement of tuition expenses for undergraduate and certification courses provided they have completed six or more months of service. Approval by your supervisor and
