

Save Progress and Re-enter Training

To close out the training and save your progress, Click on “exit” on the upper right hand corner of the training and select YES to return to the dashboard, you can then closeout the webpage and your progress will be saved.

To re-enter the training, follow the same steps that were taken to access the training for the first time.

If when trying to access the training you see the message on the right, you will need to close out all of your tabs and clear your browser history in order to re-enter the training.
